

NSW Council of Churches
MEDIA RELEASE

For immediate release

23 November 2010

Correction

In a media release earlier today the NSW Council of Churches may have inadvertently misrepresented the position of some religious groups. We withdraw the following sentence:

Meetings have already been held between leaders of the Christian, Jewish, Moslem and Buddhist religions to discuss a strategy to oppose this policy in the upcoming election campaign.

If anybody had used this release to post on a website then we ask that the sentence be withdrawn.
