

Dear Lord and Father

Dear Lord and Father,
please help the members of my family who do not seek your love.
As you look after your family, please help me to look after mine, and help them to open their hearts and minds to you.
I want to share my faith and joy, but they do not listen.
I ask this in the name of your Son, Jesus Christ,
who died to save us all.

Joy Edwards