

You were despised and rejected

You were despised and rejected of men, O Lord;
a man of sorrows and acquainted with grief,
so you can understand when I feel rejected;
you can feel my sorrow and my sadness.
I thank you for your presence in all my times of darkness,
and for giving me light along my way.

Denis Duncan